

Video Overlay

Broadcast your own commercial for just:

$515!

Here's How The Program Works

- You provide us with a brief video clip.
- We'll place your video overlay on the digital version of your ad.
- You'll be able to link directly to your video from your own website.

Video format will be a public YouTube link.

Take the next step in magazine advertising! Showcase your products and set your ad apart with your own brief video overlay.

Your upgrade to a video overlay will be seen by subscribers who have requested the digital version of Awards & Engraving. Every digital version of A&E is also posted in the premium content section of our website for a full year, giving your video overlay a year-long shelf life.
